HAND TEXT BOOKS

Students in year 12 in 2010, can obtain second hand text books on Wednesday, 18th November from the staffroom near the canteen. A number of books are also available for students in year 11 in 2010, but as the year 11 students are still completing their examinations, some books will not be available on this day and an additional second hand book day will be held on Thursday, 26th November. Sales will commence at 8.30 am and finish at 12.00 pm.

Further enquiries can be made by contacting Mr John Butler on 0419 890 139.

It is never too late to hand in your textbooks in for sale. They can be left at the senior or junior campus libraries.

HOST FAMILY WANTED

We are very lucky to be offered the opportunity to host a Japanese assistant teacher, from February next year. His name is Takashi. He will be working to improve the learning of students in Japanese, by working with small groups and in the classes of Ms Shinagawa and Ms Kercher. His English is very good, as he has been studying English for 10 years and has been to English speaking countries many times before. He is an IT consultant in Japan, having graduated from university. He loves the outdoors, fishing, golfing, snowboarding and listening to music.

We are looking for a family to host Takashi for 4 weeks. He will contribute $280.00 to the family to cover expenses. If you are interested in hosting Takashi, please telephone Ms Robyn Kercher or Ms Eri Shinagawa at school on 51504800.

YOU COULD NAME AUSTRALIA'S NEW OCEAN RESEARCH VESSEL

In the May 2009 Budget, the Commonwealth Government announced that Australia will soon have a new research vessel to explore and study our oceans. CSIRO are running a competition giving primary and secondary students the opportunity to name this vessel. There are prizes for each category, with each winner receiving a $500 gift voucher to spend at CSIRO Education or CSIRO Publishing. Students can enter as many names as they wish.

If you are interested in entering, log on to the CSIRO website (csiro.gov.au) and click on the 'Float a name' link. Entries close Tuesday, 1st December, 2009.
